The Public Trustee is getting saucy about Wills

Celebrate Queensland Wills week at Public Trustee hosted free pre-launch sausage sizzles across the State.

As part of Queensland Wills Week, The Public Trustee of Queensland, Peter Carne is urging the community to ensure they have a valid Will.

'Everyone over 18 needs a valid Will, regardless of their age or the value of their estate', Mr Carne said.

'Making your Will lets you say how you would like your assets distributed, nominate guardians for your children, set up trusts and donate money to charity.

'A Will is a living document that requires updating as your life changes.

'Birth of a child, marriage, going overseas, natural disasters, retirement, separation and divorce and entering a de facto relationship are all times to make sure your Will is up to date.'

Peter Carne said making a Will is easy and 100% free at The Public Trustee and there is no catch.

'Many people think we charge a percentage to administer deceased estates, this is not the case, we charge a competitive fee,' he said
