Seniors battle it out for superstar title

Sunshine Coast's talented Senior Superstar finalists will be giving their all to win the grand final for 2010.

The Public Trustee of Queensland, Peter Carne said his office has been supporting Senior Superstar for two years and the standard of competition increases each year.

"Senior Superstar is a great way for older people to showcase their talents, I am always impressed with the diverse range of acts and the quality of performances," Mr Carne said.

"It's great that this year locals can enjoy the Senior Superstar grand final for free.

"There's a terrific feeling of community and family at the all performances and I encourage everyone to attend.

"I thank all the performers who have participated in this year's event and wish the talented finalists the best of luck.

"Sponsoring Senior Superstar is a way for The Public Trustee to support the Sunshine Coast community and we are very proud to sponsor this worthy event," Mr Carne said.

The final is being held Saturday 20 November
2pm (doors open 1pm)
Caloundra RSL
19 West Terrace, Caloundra
admission is free
