

Serving Queensland

Welcome to the Queensland Wills Week edition

Queensland Wills Week 3-7 May promotes the importance of all Queenslanders over 18 making a valid Will and ensuring it is kept up to date.

To launch Queensland Wills Week we are hosting pre-launch sausage sizzles across the State commencing 11 April 2011.

During Queensland Wills Week we will be visiting retirement villages, shopping centres and other organisations to answer queries and talk about the importance of having a valid Will.

As part of our commitment to engage with the community, a Public Trustee representative can visit your organisation to speak to your members about Wills and Enduring Powers of Attorney.

We may also be able to provide you with a mobile Will making service on the day of our visit. This enables your members to have their Wills prepared without the need to travel to one of our Offices.

Phone 1300 360 044 to arrange a Will making visit for your organisation.

For more information about the importance of having a Will, real life stories and Queensland Wills Week event details visit www.willsweek.qld.gov.au

When your life changes direction; direct your changes to us.

A Will is a living document that should be amended as your life changes. Many people make a Will but forget to update it at key stages in their life's journey. At The Public Trustee it's 100% free to update your Will, no matter how many times you come to see us to make changes.

Lifestages for making or updating your Will:

- marriage
- a change to your assets
- illness
- retirement
- birth of a child
- natural disasters
- travel
- separation or divorce.

Queenslanders helping Queenslanders

Did you know The Public Trustee's free Will making service helps charities and not-for-profit organisations across Queensland by supporting bequests to the Queensland Community Foundation (QCF).

The QCF is one of the largest philanthropic trust organisations in Queensland. The QCF's funds are safeguarded in perpetuity and the interest is used to support grant allocations to a range of not-for-profit organisations and community projects.

The Public Trustee's free Will making service gives Queenslanders the opportunity to leave money to the QCF in their Wills.

This ensures that Queenslanders can leave a lasting legacy that contributes to a better community.

For more information about the QCF visit www.qcf.org.au
